Searching for Serenity
@Mettodyl
Link

-We loved the "Serenia" collection and added a lot of amazing ART for the BRAINFROG community gallery, but there were standouts. Everyone loves the web3 pug @Mettodyl and his unique style has become iconic among our close knit smaller art communities. When we collected his 1/1 art "Searching For Serenity" it was the highest sale he's ever made on @objkt we were honored to share that important moment with him. Being a talking frog with a floating brain our vote this week goes to the pugs and all the other animated species sharing this web3 space. Gorgeous introspective art from someone who always gives back to this community and has a gigantic heart.
We love Habibi The Pug

-I'm a sucker for a good landscape piece and there was something captivating about the way the glitch aesthetic melds with this piece to create an almost impressionist field of flowers
